coaching and innovation mentoring

CINNAM SRL

We are a service company and professional network dedicated to enhancing the market leadership of our clients. We aim to contribute to your performance, promote sustainability, and increase the well-being of people and the planet.

We provide coaching, mentoring, change management, and business advisory services to individuals and organizations. We support our clients through dynamic transitions and key growth stages in both profit and non-profit sectors. Our approach integrates people-oriented and business-oriented projects, ensuring they are interdependent, complementary, and often combined for maximum impact.

Cinnamonline, CINNAM's Smart Assistance, ensures seamless access to our services through web channels and digital platforms. Cinnamonline is active in Business Coaching, Life Coaching, Management Innovation Mentoring, Strategic Advisory, and Creative Labs.

Smart Assistance can be offered independently or blended with our other services, creating a flexible and tailored approach to your needs.

Our approach brings value to companies, teams, and individuals. With extensive experience across various sectors, including automotive, facility management, healthcare and wellbeing, customer care, distribution services, fashion, design, food, non-profit, business education, and others, we offer tailored solutions to meet business and personal needs and objectives.
